

Please do not change the law that was enacted regarding telemarketers ability to call our home. We can actually get through a meal now without interuption. We didn't even want to answer our phone due to telemarketers prior to this law being enacted. Please don't change our quality time at home.